

Stated Meeting, December 15, 1905.

President SMITH in the Chair.

A letter was read from the Committee on Organization of the 6th Congrès Internationale d' Anthropologie Criminelle, announcing that the Congress would convene at Turin on April 28, 1906, and inviting the Society to be represented thereat.

The President delivered his Annual Address which included "The Story of the Isolation of the Metal Calcium."